

Find friends that are playing.

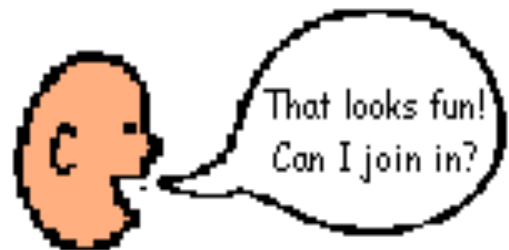

Walk up and watch them play.

Wait for them to look at you. You may get closer and smile or wave if they don't see you.

Say something about their play. Ask if you can join.

If yes, start playing by finding a toy or being a part of the game.

If there is no room for you, find other kids who are playing and try again.

